

Writing Winning Grant Applications

Date: 4th April 2017

Time: 9.30am to 12.30pm

Place: Waitakere Community Resource Centre, 8 Ratanui St, Henderson (see below)

Cost: $45.00 pp incl gst

Writing Winning Grant Applications

This workshop will explore how to put together grant applications that communicate effectively to funders and increase chance of success.

Topics covered will include:

- Demystifying the language of grants and fundraising to speak the funders language
- How to pitch your project and cause so people are queuing up to fund you
- Recognising what information the funder needs to hear so they will support you
- Identifying what turns funders on and what turns funders off

In this workshop Sandy will share what she has learned after many years of experience raising funds for organisations and projects as well as sitting on funding allocation committees.

Trainer/ Facilitator – Sandy Thompson

Sandy has been involved in the non-profit sector for over two decades in both a voluntarily and professional capacity.

She has dedicated the past 15 years towards helping a range of organisations in the social services, community development and education sectors. She has held leadership roles within the community sector and the tertiary institute of Unitec, giving her an adept ability to mentor, teach and support in the NGO context. Sandy has a history of successfully fundraising for both national and international projects and has a wealth of learning to share. She is currently a Director of the Centre for Not for Profit Leadership

Numbers are limited. Book now to avoid disappointment.
